From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated April 1.

Warsaw, March 15.

THE Confederates have not met for several Days, because the Great General Lubomirski deferr'd appearing in the Congress till to day. When he was complimented by the Cardinal Primate, and by the Marshal, on his entering into the Confederacy. Among other things debated to day in the Congress, it was urg'd that the Interregnum should be declar'd, but some Deputies shewing some backwardness to consent to it, at least till the Treaty with Sweden is fix'd, the Ministers of Sweden have been desir'd to forward that Treaty on their Part.

From the Rotterdam Gazette, dated March 27.

Milan, March 4. We are in great Expectation to hear News from the Secchia, the French commanded by the Grand Prior threatening to make a great Effort on that side, 10000 Peasants are summon'd in to assist the Regular Troops in guarding the Line which the Duke of Vendome has caus'd to be drawn from Brenne to the Valleys of the Sesia, which will quickly be perfected: These Peasants are to have Ammunition Bread and the Pay of Soldiers, and are to be reliev'd in 3 Months. A few Days ago the Earth shook at Aqui in the Mantuan Montserrat, and did much Damage. Yesterday John Baptist Olinio was deliver'd over by the Inquisition to the Secular Arm, in the Dominicans Church of St. Mary, to be punish'd for exercising the Office of a Priest, tho' he was never in Orders, at Fermo in the Novarrese, and for saying Mass daily for several Years.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated March 28.

Milan, March 12. Last Week two Proclamations were publish'd here, one commanding all the Marqueses and Counts to make out their Titles; the other forbidding the Inhabitants of all the Territories and Towns of this Dutchy to pay Contributions to the Enemy on pain of Death. Mean time 'tis advis'd, that on the Refusal made by our People to pay Contributions, 1500 Imperial Horse and 1000 Piemontois Foot, have pillag'd San Bernardino, Molengo, and Sorengo, and carried off 300 Head of Cattle, and a great Quantity of Goods and Provisions. They write from Turin, That the 2d of this Month the Duke of Savoy publish'd an Order, commanding his Subjects of Piemont to carry all their Corn into Turin, Coni, Verceil and Ivrea, except a certain Quantity allow'd for the proper use of each Family; and in Case any Person be detected of concealing Corn contrary to this Order, he is to be fin'd 100 Crowns, besides the Loss of his Corn. This is done to deprive Enemies of Subsistence in case they should make Incursions into his Country. A Person, who under a Priest's Habit has administer'd the Sacraments, tho' he was not in Orders, has been condemn'd to be burnt alive.

Basil, March 22. An Envoy from the King of Prussia arriv'd yesterday at Zurich, 'tis said he is to make a Remonstrance touching the Principality of Orange. The King of Poland has likewise sent a Minister to the Cantons, to desire them to furnish him with some Troops for his Money.

From the Leiden Courant dated April 2.

Mentz, March 25. A Party of 300 of the French having pass'd the Rhine at Worms, surpriz'd the Toll-house over against that Place, and took 20 Lunenburg Soldiers Prisoners in it. Some Difficulties are risen touching the making of a Line from Aschaffenburg to the Neighbourhood of this Place, which make it doubtful whether it will be undertaken or not.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated April 1.

Frankfort, March 26. We have receiv'd Advice, that the Marshal de Tallard is arriv'd at Strasburg, and 'tis confirm'd that the Enemy design to attack the Lines of Stollhoffen; But due Preparations are made for the Defence of those Lines, by the Care of the Count de Frise.

Cologne, March 28. The Estates of this Archbishoprick have been some time assembled; The Estates of the Circle of Westphalia will shortly meet. The Additions to the Fortifications of Bonn are carried on with great Diligence. Yesterday a Party of the French surpriz'd a Troop of Prussian Horse that was quarter'd in Woeringen, a little Town in the lower part of this Archbishoprick. Most of the Horses and Baggage were taken, and some Men were kill'd and wounded on both sides. Another Party of the Enemies has seiz'd 3 Waggons between this City and Bonn, loaded with Merchandize.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated April 1.

They write from Paris that the Count de Thoulouse would in a few days set out from thence for Brest with the Marshal de Coeuvres; that the Marshal de Chateaurenau had taken leave of the King, in order to go to Toulon to conduct the Fleet that is fitting out there to the Coast of Andalousia, where the Count de Thoulouse is to joyn him with a Fleet from Brest: That the Marshal de Tallard did not set out for Strasburg till the 20th, because he had been some days at Montbrison en Forest, at celebrating the Marriage of his Son the Marquess de la Baume with the only Daughter of the Count de Verdun; but the Marquess, notwithstanding his Marriage, will follow his Father into the Field, and command a Body of Troops on the Kinische on the other side the Rhine.
